

Collaborative diabetes education 2021

Proficient day Wednesday 10 March

We are not going to be beaten by Covid – let's try again with this proficient day now rescheduled for Wednesday 10th March. Stay updated and future focused.

Anyone leading a practice diabetes team – this is the day for you!

With a new medication available, how confident are you in making suggestions, advocating for your patient, noticing contraindications/side effects?

NZ has new management guidelines for diabetes, see the latest advice.
