

Identifying and Responding to Vulnerability and Child Abuse

Huntly, 29 April 2021

The 1-day Child Protection Training Workshops are short targeted courses designed to provide introductory level information about specific child protection related subjects. The different categories of child abuse are discussed and the participant will gain base level skills, knowledge and confidence to identify and respond to a child who may be at risk.

This workshop has been funded by WEL Energy Trust. If you are a frontline worker for a NFP or NGO and based in Hamilton, there will be no charge for you to attend.

1-day Workshop | 9am - 4pm | $185.00 plus GST per person

Enrol Now

Workshop content

The Identifying and Responding to Vulnerability and Child Abuse workshop covers:

- The context of child abuse in Aotearoa New Zealand
- The concept of vulnerability and risk
- The barriers to intervening when children are at risk
- The nature and effects of trauma specifically focusing on family violence, child abuse and neglect
- Identifying the different types, signs and indicators of child abuse, neglect and exploitation
- Responding to children and young people when abuse is suspected or disclosed
- Understanding policy and legal requirements relating to child abuse and neglect
- Referring children, young people, families and whānau for support

Enquire about Training your Staff

Email Us

Child Matters - 480 Anglesea Street, Hamilton | 07 838 3370

480 Anglesea St
Hamilton, Waikato 3204, New Zealand

