

When two pandemics collide: Diabetes and Covid 19

Date: Wednesday 7th October

Time: 9am – 4pm

Venue: The River Room, ground floor
Pinnacle Midlands Health Network
711 Victoria St, Hamilton

- Covid 19 – the latest research
- Diabetes and Covid 19 – why are people with diabetes so susceptible
- Sick day management for Type 2 diabetes
- Resources that support the most vulnerable in our communities
- Maximising therapy efficiently
- Options when carb counting isn't appropriate

This day will be of interest to people working in general practice.

RSVP to: taryn.ashby@pinnacle.health.nz at least one week before the session.

Regards: Anne Waterman, CNS Pinnacle PHO 0276425846
Suzanne Moorhouse, Diabetes Nurse Hauraki PHO 0276086978
Elizabeth Johnson, Diabetes Nurse National Hauora Coalition PHO 0273274996
Lynne Malcolm, CNS WRDS 02162903

Tea and coffee provided

BYO own lunch or there are lots of options close by.

Please note:

To ensure the health & safety of yourselves, your fellow attendees and the facilitators, please do not attend if any of the following apply to you:

- You have travelled overseas in the last 14 days
- You have flu or cold like symptoms or respiratory issues
- You have or think you have been in contact with an infected person or person with Covid-19

COLLABORATIVE DIABETES EDUCATION